kaltarang'24
THE CULTURAL FEST OF RGIPT

Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology
(An Institute of National Importance established under the Act of Parliament)
(Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas, Government of India)

Vichaar Vivaad(Debate)

Round 1:

- Registered participants will be allotted to a panel of four to five members.
- During the competition, a topic will be given for discussion and the participants will be given five minutes to think about its pros and cons.
- After this, there will be a ten minute long panel discussion during which each participant will have to participate in a healthy discussion and try to reach a logical conclusion by presenting his arguments and views.
- Evaluation in this round will be based on fluency, language command, relevance to the topic, and confidence.
- participants will progress to the subsequent round based on their performance in this round.

Round 2:

- After the first phase, all debates will be conducted according to the parliamentary debate method.
- Rules and topics will be explained to the selected participants on the spot.
- Each participant will be given a maximum of 6 minutes' time to speak either in favour or against the subject.
- A warning bell will be given after 5 minutes and a final bell after 6 minutes.If the participants exceed the allocated time then the marks will be deducted at the discretion of the judges.
- The judging criteria for fluency, language command, relevance, and confidence will remain unchanged.

Rules and guidelines

- Participation in this event is strictly individual.
- Participants must be present 5 minutes before the event begins.
- Participants are expected to refrain from using false language and derogatory Statements during arguments to avoid affecting the sentiments of any community.

Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology
(An Institute of National Importance established under the Act of Parliament)
(Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas, Government of India)

- Respect for each other's views is mandatory, and participants should refrain from Interrupting others during arguments.
- The debate will consist of multiple rounds, the number of which will be determined by the total number of participants.
- The judges' decisions are final and binding, with no further queries entertained.
- The organizing team reserves the right to change or modify any rules based on the participant's feedback and participation.
- Dress code : Formal